Our Insider Journeys Note

“Khmer Food is perhaps not the most known cuisine of the world but delicious regardless. If you are looking for some new dishes then you need to join this experience and learn cambodian dishes from a home based kitchen.”

Virtual Experience Description

Come, explore a local Khmer home cooked dish and get an insight into the food of Khmer countryside cuisine. A private virtual connection allows you to meet the local cook and her family while experiencing the food preparation process itself. You can experience the simplicity of cooking on the local house veranda next to where the family is farming animals.

Your Host

You will be a guest at a local Khmer family with Mother and Son arranging the virtual experience, gaining a deep insight into culture and living conditions in countryside Cambodia.
